

DeLever APC/ATC Seminars – Feedback

Seminar: Introduction to the APC/ATC – 22nd February 2008, London.

17 delegates attended this seminar held in Marriott Park Lane Hotel, London. The Introduction to the APC/ATC seminar included a walk through the whole recording and submission process and an interactive exercise on writing your record of progress correctly. The seminar considered the APC/ATC requirements, summary of experience explained, record of progress, log book, professional development, pre-submission paperwork and process and the various resources available to candidates, supervisors and counsellors. The seminar closed with a final question and answer session and each delegate took away with them a pack full of useful information and a free resource CDROM.

Below are the scores received from the delegate feedback:

What did delegates like the most about this seminar?

- “Packed lots of information into relatively short period of time”
- “The option to ask questions and not feel stupid”
- “The level of detail and advice offered, especially with regards to preparation for critical analysis”
- “Clear presentation that conveys the process in understandable terms”
- “Informal. Professional and very informative attitude”
- “Speaker was at correct level. Opportunity to meet other surveyors in same position”
- “Just nice to have the 'Jargon' broken down into an easy language”
- “It motivates you to keep on top of the required paperwork”
